

Anti-Recidivism Coalition

Making a Difference: What Visionary Leaders Can Accomplish

- $25 purchases a month of public transportation for an ARC member.
- $50 funds one Computer Skills class.
- $75 supports one trauma-informed yoga class.
- $100 covers the costs of a member's one-on-one session with a clinical social worker.
- $250 funds one Women's Support Group, welcoming new women into the ARC community and connecting them to a supportive peer network to guide them through the challenges of reentry.
- $500 sends one ARC member to the State Capitol to share his or her story and to advocate for fairer criminal justice laws across California.
- $1,000 supports a transformative mentoring relationship between an incarcerated young person in LA County and a formerly incarcerated ARC member.
- $2,500 supports the housing of ARC staff members working inside maximum security prisons for one month.
- $5,000 funds one month of the work of an ARC life coach, who has personally experienced incarceration and has been trained to help others rebuild their lives.
- $7,500 covers the cost of one ARC member's participation in our Second Chance Apprenticeship Training, a 12-week program that prepares members for success in union apprenticeships in the building and construction trades.
- $10,000 funds one month of our Ride Home program, which transports a newly released formerly incarcerated individual from prison back home or to transitional housing.
- $25,000 provides a paid, 12-week internship for eight formerly incarcerated members at ARC's office, giving them the necessary professional skills and experience to so that they can find high-quality employment.
- $50,000 funds the salary and benefits of an ARC Job Developer.
- $100,000 covers the salaries of a Hope and Redemption team: two life coaches who work inside prisons to ensure that those who are released have successful reentries into society.
- $250,000 funds an entire 12-week Second Chance Apprenticeship co-hort.
- $500,000 fully funds ARC's member services for one year.
- $1,000,000 funds an entire year of ARC housing—58 beds over two sites.